UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN JOSE DIVISION

YOU LIN WANG,

Petitioner,

v.

FORENSIC PROFESSIONALS GROUP
USA, INC., et al.,

Respondents.

Case No. 20-CV-08033-LHK

ORDER GRANTING UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

Before the Court is Petitioner Youlin Wang’s (“Petitioner”) unopposed motion for a preliminary injunction. ECF No. 23 (“Mot.”). Having considered the motion, the relevant law, and the record in this case, the Court GRANTS Petitioner’s unopposed motion for a preliminary injunction.

Petitioner seeks a preliminary injunction against Respondents Richard Kahn (“Kahn”) and the Forensic Professionals Group USA, Inc. (collectively, “Respondents”) enjoining the arbitration brought by Respondents in Miami, Florida as Case Number 01-19-0004-1076. Mot. at 2. Petitioner argues that he meets the four-factor balancing test for a preliminary injunction. Id. at 10. The equitable factors a court considers when deciding whether to grant a motion for a preliminary injunction are: (1) plaintiff’s likelihood of success on the merits; (2) the possibility of

1 irreparable injury to plaintiff; (3) the balance of hardships; and (4) whether a preliminary
2 injunction would be in the public interest. Los Angeles Mem'l Coliseum Comm'n v. Nat'l Football
3 League, 634 F.2d 1197, 1200 (9th Cir. 1980). Petitioner argues that he is likely to succeed on the 4 merits of his claims because the underlying agreements containing the purported arbitration clause
5 were not signed by Petitioner. Rather, they were signed by Derek Longstaff under a forged power
6 of attorney. Mot. at 2. Next, Petitioner argues that Petitioner will suffer irreparable harm absent 7 injunctive relief because he will be forced to spend money and human capital to arbitrate non-8 arbitrable claims. Id; see Pension Plan for Pension Tr. Fund for Operating Engineers v. Weldway
9 Const., Inc., 920 F. Supp. 2d 1034, 1049 (N.D. Cal. 2013) (explaining that a party suffers 10 irreparable harm by incurring costs in arbitrating a dispute that is non-arbitrable); AT&T Mobility
11 LLC v. Bernardi, 2011 WL 5079549, at *10 (N.D. Cal. Oct. 26, 2011) (same). Finally, Petitioner 12 argues that the balance of equities tips in his favor because absent a preliminary injunction, he will 13 be forced to arbitrate claims he did not agree to arbitrate, and the requested preliminary injunction 14 will serve the public interest because it will protect the integrity of the arbitration process. Mot. at 15 3.

16 The Court has given Respondents repeated opportunities to oppose Petitioner's motion for 17 a preliminary injunction, and yet Respondents have chosen not to oppose the motion. Petitioner 18 filed the motion on December 7, 2020. ECF No. 23. Respondents' opposition was due by 19 December 21, 2020.

20 On December 24, 2020, Respondent Kahn, appearing pro se, requested an extension of 21 time to January 29, 2021 to hire local counsel and respond to the motion. ECF No. 26. On 22 December 29, 2020, the Court granted Kahn's request to extend time. ECF No. 31.

23 On January 15, 2021, counsel Douglas Everett Klein made an appearance on behalf of 24 Respondents Richard Kahn and Forensic Professionals Group USA. ECF No. 35.

25 On January 25, 2021, the parties stipulated to an extension of time to February 12, 2021 for 26 Respondents to oppose the motion, which the Court granted. ECF Nos. 36, 37. Respondents 27 failed to file an opposition by February 12, 2021. Petitioner filed a reply on the stipulated

1 deadline of February 26, 2021. ECF No. 43.

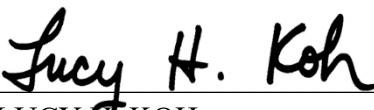

2 To this date, April 5, 2021, Respondents, who are represented by counsel, have still failed
3 to oppose Petitioner's motion for a preliminary injunction, which was filed nearly four months ago
4 on December 7, 2020.

5 The Court is satisfied that Petitioner has met his burden to demonstrate that a preliminary 6 injunction should issue and therefore GRANTS Petitioner's unopposed motion for a preliminary 7 injunction. The Court may issue a preliminary injunction only if the movant gives security in an 8 amount that the Court considers proper to pay the costs and damages sustained by any party found
9 to have been wrongfully enjoined. Fed. R. Civ. P. 65(c). Petitioner argues that there is no realistic 10 likelihood of harm to Respondents because the injunction will only stay the arbitration for the 11 period required for the Court to rule on the merits of the case. Mot. at 24. Petitioner argues that 12 he should therefore be required to post only a minimal bond. The Court agrees. Thus, the Court 13 imposes a bond of $1,000.

14 Accordingly, the Court GRANTS Petitioner's unopposed motion for a preliminary 15 injunction. Respondents are enjoined from continuing their arbitration in Case Number 01-19-16 0004-1076. As a condition of the preliminary injunction, Petitioner is ordered to post a bond in 17 the amount of $1,000 with the Clerk for the United States District Court for the Northern District
18 of California to secure payment of any damages sustained by Respondents if they are later found 19 to have been wrongfully enjoined. The preliminary injunction shall take effect upon posting of the 20 bond and last until the Court's decision on the merits or until the Court orders otherwise.

21 IT IS SO ORDERED.
